King receives European Commission president

His Majesty King Abdullah on Wednesday received European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen, and discussed expanding cooperation between Jordan and the European Union in various fields, as well as the latest regional and international developments. King Abdullah highlighted the strong ties and partnership between Jordan and the EU, affirming keenness on expanding cooperation in several fields, according to a Royal Court statement. His Majesty expressed appreciation of the EU's support for Jordan, particularly for its refugee response, commending the EU for co-hosting the fifth Brussels conference on "Supporting the future of Syria and the region", and urging the international community to continue to shoulder its responsibilities in that regard.

Lower House approves amendments to Fiscal Surplus Law

The Lower House on Wednesday approved amendments of the 2019 Fiscal Surplus Law, as referred by the Parliamentary Finance Committee, amendments of the 2020 Civil Aviation Law, amendments of 2021 Companies Law, which was returned by the Senate, as well as the 2021 amendments to the law of the fund for fallen officers of the Jordan Armed Forces-Arab Army (JAF) and the security agencies which was received from the government. During a Lower House session, notices related to reducing curfew hours during Ramadan, reopening the mosques and exempting university students from fees, as well as compensating traders affected by the Rapid Bus Project, were signed, according to the Jordan News Agency, Petra. Regarding the amendments related to the Financial Surplus Law, MPs approved that the amendments will go into effect 30 days after being published in the Official Gazette. They also passed the Finance Committee's recommendations that included the cancellation of three government units, including the Youth and Sports Support Fund, the Scientific Research and Innovation Support Fund and the Aqaba Railway Company.
