King, Bahrain monarch and Abu Dhabi crown prince hold trilateral summit in UAE

His Majesty King Abdullah, Bahrain King Hamad Bin Isa Al Khalifa and Sheikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the crown prince of Abu Dhabi and the deputy supreme commander of the UAE Armed Forces, held a trilateral summit on Wednesday in Abu Dhabi. The leaders reaffirmed the deep-rooted and strategic ties between the three countries, and discussed means to advance them further, in service of shared interests, according to a Royal Court statement. Discussions also covered means of stepping up cooperation and integration in a number of vital sectors, especially health, food security and pharmaceuticals, as well as joint efforts to counter the COVID-19 pandemic and mitigate its economic and humanitarian repercussions. The need to continue coordination and consultation among the three countries on various issues of mutual concern, and in service of Arab interests, was also discussed.

Area of licensed buildings dropped 25% by end of Q3 2020 — DoS

By the end of the third quarter of 2020, the total area of licensed buildings reached 3.849 million square metres, compared with 5.14 million square metres during the same period of 2019, marking a 25.1 per cent drop, the Department of Statistics (DoS) announced on Wednesday. The department added that the total number of building licences issued in the Kingdom dropped by 18.2 per cent during the January-September period when compared with the same period of 2019, reaching 15,847 licences, according to the Jordan News Agency, Petra. The area of housing buildings totalled 3.297 million square metres in the January-September period of 2020, compared with 3.897 million square metres in the same period last year, registering a decline of 15.4 per cent, the DoS said. The DoS stated in its report that the total area of buildings licensed for non-residential purposes showed a drop of 55.6 per cent, amounting to some 552,000 square metres in the first nine months of 2020 compared with around 1.243 million square metres in the same period last year.
