Agreement to simplify EU rules of origin provides win-dow of opportunity — experts

Benefitting from the agreement to simplify rules of origin with the European Union (EU) requires activating the role of economic diplomacy, intensive marketing campaigns and better public-private partner-ship, according to experts. The agreement to simplify rules of origin was signed in July of 2016, giving a window of opportunity to boost exports to European Union (EU) countries through simple conditions, and in 2018 the agreement was simplified further with more facilitations for Jordanian exporters. “The relaxation of the rules of origin basically gave a window of opportunity to export to the EU through simple conditions to meet the rules of origin; it was 60 per cent local material in the product, and changed to 30 per cent,” Iyad Abu Haltam, head of the “Made in Jordan” campaign and member of the Amman Chamber of Commerce (ACC), told The Jordan Times on Saturday.

Income, sales tax settlement committee receives 2,349 applications

Individual and corporate taxpayers extended 2,349 applications to the Income and Sales Tax Department (ISTD) settlement committee in the first nine months of the year seeking settlements with the department over their tax balances. Of the total, 1,650 applications were related to the income tax while the other 699 were related to sales tax settlement, according to figures issued by the ISDT. The tax settlement committee has so far looked into 1,747 applications, including 1,276 for income tax and 471 for the general tax on sales, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The ISTD noted that the Cabinet had approved 1,256 of the total, including 957 income tax applications and 299 sales tax settlements. The ISTD indicated that the committee does not look into cases that had received final court verdicts and facilitates the enforcement of any ruling without prejudice to the rights of any of the parties.
