Gov't close to achieving job-creation goal for 2019'

The government has provided 30,026 jobs of the 30,550 opportunities it pledged to create by the end of 2019, Labour Minister Nidal Bataineh said on Tuesday. "Of the total 30,026 Jordanians who have been provided with jobs during the third quarter of this year, 27,078 have already subscribed to the Social Security Corporation (SSC)," Bataineh said, noting that those who got jobs through the Qatar initiative and workers in the self-employee programmes funded by the Development and Employment Fund are not subject to social security. The top official's remarks were made at a press conference held at the SSC to identify the numbers of new workers and review the government's efforts to create new jobs, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Al-Ississ calls for 'genuine' partnerships between WBG, regional development funds

Minister of Planning and International Cooperation and Minister of State for Economic Affairs Mohamad Al-Ississ has urged the World Bank Group (WBG) to build "genuine" partnerships with regional funds to implement development projects. Chairing a meeting of Arab governors with the WBG President David Malpass in Washington, DC, Al-Ississ also called for expanding cooperation with the G-20 in implementing development projects with "tangible" impact on economic growth, according to a ministry statement. The minister also urged the WBG to help bring international investments to the Arab region, stressing the importance of Saudi Arabia's G-20 presidency in 2020, the statement said.

Jordan to take part in China International Import Exhibition next month

Jordan is scheduled to participate in the China International Import Exhibition next month to explore export opportunities available for national products, President of the Amman Chamber of Industry (ACI) and the Jordan Chamber of Industry Fathi Jaghbir said on Tuesday. In a joint press conference at the ACI with Chairman of the Jordan Investment Commission (JIC) Khaled Wazani and Chinese Ambassador to Jordan Pan Weifang, Jaghbir said that certain goods from chemical industries, fertilisers and Dead Sea products have "already started" entering the Chinese market, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Jordan will be hosting the 2019 Jordan-China Business Forum on October 27, Jaghbir said.
