SSIF signs MoU with Gov't Shareholding Management Company, Islamic Awqaf Directorate

Social Security Investment Fund (SSIF) CEO Kholoud Saqqaf has signed two Memoranda of Understanding (MoU) with the Government's Shareholding Management Company/the Government of Jordan and the Islamic Awqaf Directorate. Referring to the MoU with the Government's Shareholding Management Company, Saqqaf said that this agreement aims to transfer the fund's expertise in governance to the company to help it develop "proper criteria" for selecting, monitoring and evaluating the government's representatives on boards of directors of companies in which the government holds shares, according to an SSIF statement. After 16 years of institutional experience, the SSIF "spares no effort" to entrench and enhance corporate governance at different levels and adapt the best international practices, the statement quoted Saqqaf as saying.

Qatar Chamber, Amman delegation explore furthering bilateral trade

The Qatar Chamber on Sunday received a Jordanian commercial delegation and discussed means to enhance commercial and economic cooperation, stimulate joint investments and increase trade exchange between the two countries. Chairman of the Qatar Chamber Sheikh Khalifa Bin Jassim Bin Mohammed Al Thani said that the commercial exchange volume between Qatar and Jordan grew by 18 per cent in 2018 to 1.3 billion Qatari riyals, compared with 1.1 billion Qatari riyals in 2017. Sheikh Khalifa expressed hope for achieving higher growth rates in the trade volume between Doha and Amman, noting that his country's private sector looks forward to enhancing cooperation and partnerships with its Jordanian peers in various economic sectors, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The Qatari market during the first nine months of 2019 witnessed the registration of 175 new Jordanian companies that established partnerships and alliances with Qatari firms, the chairman said.

Government unveils 'comprehensive programme' to stimulate economy

The government will adopt a new approach to deal with the 2020 budget in regards to partnerships with Parliament and utilising committees with high expertise in analysing financial challenges and opportunities, Prime Minister Omar Razzaz said on Sunday. During a panel discussion held to announce new government measures to stimulate the national economy and investment, Razzaz said that figures relating to the budget will be made available to the public to inform them of the sources of the government's revenues and where they are spent. "The comprehensive programme we announce today is a manifestation of His Majesty King Abdullah's Royal directives, speeches and the series of meetings and sessions he has headed," Razzaz said, noting that His Majesty's main concern is the livelihood of citizens and how the programme will improve it, as well as its implementation time frame. The programme comprises four aspects: Stimulating the economy and investment, management and financial reform, improving citizens' livelihood and improving services comprehensively, according to Razzaz.
