Qatari team interested in medical tourism investments at Dead Sea

A Qatari delegation, headed by Sheikh Faisal Al Thani, head of the local portfolios at the Qatar Investment Authority (QIA), has expressed interest in exploring investment cooperation in the field of medical tourism in the Dead Sea Development Zone (DSDZ). These remarks came during the Qatari delegation's field trip on Tuesday to the DSDZ, accompanied by the Minister of State for Investment Affairs and Jordan Investment Commission (JIC) Chairman Muhannad Shehadeh, Chairman of the Jordan Free and Development Zones Group (JFDZ) Abdulmajid Alrahamneh and the JFDZ's CEO Hamza Al Haj. During the tour, the delegation was briefed on the situation of tourism and the natural environment in the DSDZ, as well as the infrastructure projects implemented by the JFDZ, especially the Dead Sea Corniche, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

80 businessmen in Damascus to pave way for future cooperation

A private sector delegation headed to Damascus on Tuesday to discuss prospects of cooperation with their Syrian counterparts. A well-informed source, who requested anonymity, said that the delegation comprised around 80 businessmen who were due to discuss with their Syrian counterparts the establishment of joint economic ventures and the resumption of trade exchange when the border crossings between the two countries reopen. In a recent interview with the Russian international television network, RT, Lower House Speaker Atef Tarawneh said that the private sector delegation's visit to Damascus was part of the preparations to reopen the border crossings between Jordan and Syria.

Agreement to establish industrial complex in Muwaqqar signed

Jordan Industrial Estates Corporation (JIEC) on Tuesday announced the signing of an agreement to establish an industrial complex in Muwaqqar Industrial City, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The industrial complex will expand over a total area of 368 dunums, and include several factories specialised in the heavy engineering and basic metal industries such as copper, zinc and aluminium purification, in addition to specialised chemical industries which heavily rely on Jordanian raw materials. The agreement was signed by JIEC Chief Executive Officer Jalal Al Debei and Taybah Metal Industries Company owner Abdullah Al Shawabka.
