ASE and Sustainability Excellence sign a memorandum of understanding on mutual cooperation

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) and Sustainability Excellence have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to promote sustainability in the Jordanian capital market and among the listed companies. The MoU sets the tone of cooperation between the two organizations and contains several activities that include: conducting training and engagement sessions on sustainability, providing guidance on sustainability disclosure for the listed companies, and developing corporate ESG performance assessments, among other activities. The MoU was signed by Mr. Nader Azar, Chief Executive Officer of the ASE, and Mr. Darin Rovere, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Sustainability Excellence.

More Syrian refugees return home voluntarily

The number of Syrian refugees returning voluntarily to Syria from Jordan has been “slightly” rising since a tripartite agreement to back a ceasefire in southwest Syria went into effect early July. In October, there were some 750 returns from Jordan to Syria, compared with 1,078 voluntary returns in September, 1,203 in August and about 631 in July. The increase is more evident when the October figure is compared to the first six months of the year when 1,700 refugees voluntarily returned to Syria, Olga Sarrado Mur, associate external relations officer at UNHCR, told The Jordan Times on Monday. The UNHCR, however, said the numbers were not very significant compared to the overall Syrian refugee population.

‘Amman-Baghdad bus trips resumed’

The Jordan Express Tourist Transport (JETT) on Monday announced that it would start bus trips to Iraq, noting that the first trip is scheduled for Saturday. Malek Haddad, JETT’s general manager, told the Jordan News Agency, Petra, that the company in August signed an agreement with Abdullah Oteibi, director general of the company that transports Iraqi passengers and delegations affiliated with the government, to resume the land transport route between Jordan and Iraq. Haddad noted that trip schedules were made after the recent reopening of the border crossing between the two countries. He added that the company has allocated several “modern” buses, which are equipped with up-to-date safety standards, to operate on the Amman-Baghdad route.
