Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Zarqa reexport revenues drop

The Zarqa reexport revenues dropped to JD114 million during the first-half of 2017, compared to JD181 million during the same period last year, an official said on Wednesday. For August, exports plummeted to JD17.1 million in comparison to JD24 million during the same period last year, according to figures made available to The Jordan Times by Zarqa Chamber of Commerce. Regarding certificates of origin, the Chamber's President Hussein Shraim told The Jordan Times that 3,025 certificates were issued, compared to 5,122 in the same period of 2016. Shraim added that the number of certificates in August dropped to 562, compared to 666 in same month last year. He noted that the majority of Zarqa exports were vehicles and their equipment, electric generators, home and office furniture, plumbing tools, stones for building, drugs, garments, accessories and perfumes.

Norway extends help for Jordan's development process

His Majesty King Abdullah on Wednesday met with visiting Crown Prince of Norway Haakon, the Royal Court said in a statement. His Majesty also met separately with commander of the US Central Command, Lt. Gen. Joseph Votel. The King discussed with the Norwegian crown prince means of boosting development, economic, and military cooperation between Jordan and Norway, in addition to investing in the renewable energy sector. The discussions touched on Sahara Forest Project, which is funded by the EU and the Kingdom of Norway and aims to green Wadi Araba region using solar energy. King Abdullah and Prince Haakon also discussed the repercussions of the Syrian refugee crisis on Jordan, stressing the importance of increasing the international community's support for the Kingdom to help it cope with the burdens of the crisis. His Majesty expressed appreciation for the Norwegian support for Jordan in the development sectors and aid to continue providing humanitarian and relief services to the refugees.
