GAM approves JD12m tender for 100 accessible buses

The Greater Amman Municipality (GAM) council on Tuesday approved a tender of around JD12 million to a private company to import 100 passenger buses that can serve people with movement disability. The decision included importing 40 big buses and 60 medium-size buses from a Turkish company, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Amman Mayor Yousef Shawarbeh said that the new buses will be registered and owned by GAM, under a public transport company that the municipality council has recently approved, noting that the buses will start their service next August.

Yawning budget deficit reported for Q3

The post-grant budget deficit by the end of the third quarter of this year increased to JD726.6 million, compared with JD515.3 million during the same period of the last year, the Finance Ministry announced on Tuesday. When excluding foreign grants, the budget deficit stood at JD891.4 million by the end of September 2017, compared with JD818.9 million during the same period of 2016, the ministry said in its monthly bulletin, carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra.

Local revenues in the first nine months of 2017 went up by JD149.1 million, amounting to JD4.97 billion, compared with JD4.82 billion during the same period of last year. Meanwhile, expenditures totalled JD5.86 billion in the first three quarters of 2017, marking an increase from JD5.64 billion registered of same period 2016.

Jordan, UN sign sustainable development framework for 2018-2022

The Government on Tuesday signed the Sustainable Development Framework (UNSDF) for the period 2018-2022 with the UN representative in Jordan, providing a medium-term strategic plan for the work of the UN country team, according to a statement from the Planning Ministry. Signed by Minister of Planning and International Cooperation Imad Fakhoury and UN resident and humanitarian coordinator in Jordan Anders Pedersen, the UNSDF embodies the UN partnership framework with the government for the next five years. It is anchored on national priorities articulated by the Jordanian government and national development partners, and is in accordance with the values rooted in the principles of the UN charter and other internationally agreed frameworks as well as the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.
