Eagle Hills Jordan begins leasing of The Skyline Luxury Retail

Private real estate development and investment company Eagle Hills Jordan recently commenced the leasing of retail space 'The Skyline Luxury Retail' within the podium of the iconic 37-floor building that houses W Amman and The Skyline Residences serviced by W Amman, which is primly located in Amman's new central business district of Abdali. Strategically situated at the entrance of Abdali, The Skyline Luxury Retail comprises a total of six retail units. All units are directly accessible from the main streets of the Abdali district, highly visible from the surrounding area and within walking distance from restaurants, banks and a number of other amenities and public facilities. Ranging in size from 83 to 400 sqm, the units are provided with numerous utilities, including fire alarms, sprinklers, provisions for chilled water, an electric water heater, restrooms and other services including parking spaces for tenants. Several units also come equipped with a mezzanine floor which partly opens from the double-height ceiling of the ground floor.

King calls for proactivity as country tackles challenges

His Majesty King Abdullah on Wednesday chaired part of a Cabinet meeting at the Prime Ministry, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. During the discussion, His Majesty said that "we have to work together to overcome challenges that face our country", stressing that crises increase Jordanians' "resilience". The King praised cooperation among Jordanian institutions, underscoring the importance of learning from crises to improve ability of dealing with future challenges. He stressed that Jordanian efforts at Al Aqsa Mosque/Al Haram Al Sharif will continue by using all available tools. King Abdullah said that Jordan is closely observing the situation in Jerusalem, stressing that the challenge there is political and not only a matter of security. As for the Amman Israeli embassy incident, where a diplomat shot and killed two Jordanians, the Monarch reiterated that Jordan would not compromise its people's rights and that Israel is demanded to take legal action to serve justice. He stressed that the case would be followed up on closely. On economy, King Abdullah said that economic situation in the Kingdom needs time to see results on the ground, noting that most of the economic challenges are accumulative and that there is already a "clear" economic correction programme to achieve the envisioned reforms.
