Jordan, France sign 10-mln-Euro agreement for water sector

Minister of Water and Irrigation, Hazem al- Nasser, Monday, said that his ministry is now focused on reducing energy consumption in all water facilities by maximizing dependency on renewable energy. Welcoming a French delegation headed by Minister of State for Development and Francophonie, Jean-Marie Le Guen, Al-Nasser, said water sector strategy in Jordan aimed at reducing energy consumption as it represents a growing burden and a big challenge to the financial budget of his ministry. He added that the water strategy aimed to cut water loss to about 30 percent by 2025 as to increase the daily per capita share of potable water. At the meeting attended by officials from both sides, the two ministers signed a 10 million Euro agreement to carry out a project to boost resilience of the water sector in the northern regions, which will be implemented by the Action Against Hunger, which is a global NGO committed to ending world hunger.

"Arab Fund" to pay for road projects worth $96mln in Jordan

Planning and International Cooperation Minister Imad Fakhoury met with the Director General and the Chairman of Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development (AFESD) Abdullatif Youssef Al Hamad, and discussed enhancing cooperation between Jordan and AFESD. At the meeting's opening, Fakhoury expressed appreciation of the Jordanian government for the fund's continuous support to the Kingdom's efforts in facing the economic and social challenges. The Minister announced AFESD's Preliminary approval of funding Irbid's ring road through a concessional loan that worth $49 million, and Salt ring road with a cost of $47, 5 million. The project aims at improving land transport in the governorates and the neighbouring regions, said Fakhoury.

Hilton hotels expands resort portfolio with new resort on shores of Jordan's Dead Sea

Hilton today announced the official opening of Hilton Dead Sea Resort & Spa. The opening marks the first Hilton Hotels & Resorts property in Jordan. Strategically located at the lowest point on Earth on the eastern shores of the Dead Sea, the 285-room contemporary hotel is an exclusive resort of choice for the discerning international and local traveler. Andreas Lackner, regional head, full service brand management, Hilton said, "The Dead Sea is one of the most unique places in the world and has evolved into a major hub of both religious and health and wellness tourism in the region. As the first Hilton Hotels & Resorts property in the country of Jordan, this project marks an exciting addition to the Hilton portfolio as we continue to deliver distinct hospitality experiences to travelers from around the globe."
