Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, UAE deposit over $1bn in Jordan Central Bank - Jordan govt source

Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and the United Arab Emirates have placed over $1 billion in deposits at the Central Bank of Jordan and committed $500 million in budget support over five years as part of a $2.5 bln package to shore up the kingdom's struggling economy, a Jordanian government source said. The source said a signing agreement will take place later on Thursday that announces the breakdown of a $2.5 billion aid package pledged last June to help the Jordan implement austerity measures which had sparked massive protests. The package also includes $600 million in credit guarantees by the three Gulf countries that will help Jordan secure cheap World Bank credit and other financing for much needed infrastructure projects.

Jordan, Brunei sign deals to advance ties, expand cooperation

His Majesty King Abdullah and Sultan Haji Hassanah Bolkiah of Brunei held talks at Al Husseinia Palace on Thursday that focused on the "deep-rooted and brotherly ties between the two countries and current regional developments," a Royal Court statement said. In bilateral talks, which were followed by expanded ones attended by HRH Crown Prince Hussein and Prince Abdul Mateen Haji Hassanah Bolkiah, King Abdullah and Sultan Bolkiah affirmed their keenness to strengthen cooperation in economic, commercial, military and educational fields. At the expanded meeting, attended by senior officials on both sides, His Majesty welcomed Sultan Bolkiah, stressing the importance of his visit in solidifying ties between the two countries. The King also noted the strong, warm ties between the peoples and Royal Families of Jordan and Brunei, congratulating Sultan Bolkiah on the 51st anniversary of his accession to the throne.

Forum recommends legislation, support to encourage home-based businesses

The 10th Mediterranean Women Entrepreneurs Forum, "Women in Tech: the way ahead", recommended the review and development of Jordanian legislation in relation to home-based businesses, especially to address financial burdens resulting from the licensing process. The forum also recommended in a statement, carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra on Saturday, the adoption of an integrated system of incentives, facilities and financial and technical support for home-based businesses set up by women, which will encourage the registration of micro and small home-based businesses. The Jordanian experience in licensing and supporting home-based businesses set up by women will be shared with other countries, according to the statement.
