Bank robbed with fake gun in Amman

Police on Monday were searching for a man who allegedly robbed a bank in a busy street in Amman using a fake gun and escaping with JD16,000 in cash. The suspect reportedly entered the Arab Bank branch at Mecca street in the morning hours and waved a pistol, which police later said was fake, and demanded cash, official sources said. The suspect then fled on foot and crossed an empty lot and escaped with a vehicle, official sources added. "The police have a good description of the man and colour of the vehicle and we have intensified our efforts to arrest the suspect" a senior police official said. This is the fifth attack on banks in Amman since the beginning of the year. Three suspects were arrested while a fourth who escaped with over JD90,000 remains at large.

Shehadeh inaugurates 16th Arab Business Community Forum

Deputising for His Majesty King Abdullah, Minister of State for Investment Affairs Muhannad Shehadeh on Saturday inaugurated the 16th Arab Business Community Forum, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Organised by the Federation of Arab Businessmen in cooperation with the Jordanian Businessmen Association, the forum will discuss the economic situation in the Arab world, the green economy, the future of energy and water in the integration of Arab partnerships, the knowledge economy as a gateway to the future of Arab investment, and the electronic economic revolution and digital currencies. Representatives from 15 countries are taking part in the event, which aims to discuss the challenges facing the Arab economy, including the prospect of Arab economic relations with international economic blocs, investment opportunities in the Arab world and the role of Arab youth in entrepreneurship.

Agricultural sector ailed by more than financial troubles

Panelists on Friday said that the government's policies towards the "financially ailed" agricultural sector are contributing to labour exploitations. During a debate titled "Are government policies supportive of workers in the agriculture sector", which was organised by Tamkeen for Legal Aid and Human Rights, participants discussed issues facing Jordanian and Egyptian agricultural workers and the sector as a whole. Yousef Masoud, a land owner, said that the sector has been suffering losses since the multiple border closures including the Jordanian-Syrian border, the trade route to Qatar through Saudi Arabia as well as the Iraqi border, which reopened six months ago after two years of closure.
