Macroeconomic & Corporate News

UAE, Jordan sign agreement on government excellence system

The governments of the United Arab Emirates and the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan have signed an agreement allowing the latter to embed the UAE's Government Excellent System - 4G. The agreement also provides for strengthening partnership, sharing expertise, best practices and knowledge, and joint coordination in government processes.

The agreement was signed by Mohammad bin Abdullah Al Gergawi, Minister of Cabinet Affairs and the Future and Majd Shweikeh, Jordanian Minister of Public Sector Development and member of the board of trustees of the King Abdullah II Center for Excellence (KACE).

Tax-related measures are sovereign decisions — IMF

Levying any tax is a sovereign Jordanian decision," the International Monetary Fund (IMF) Director of the Middle East and Central Asia Department Jihad Azour said on Sunday. Azour added that the IMF's role in this regard is of consultative nature, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. At a press conference in the Moroccan Capital Rabat, Azour said that the IMF supports Jordan's tax reform efforts, highlighting the importance of the participation of more spans of the society segments to make the efforts successful. He stressed that rebuilding of Iraq and Syria are likely to give a boost to the economies of the region, especially those which host the largest numbers of refugees. He said that once the reconstruction projects begin, they should stimulate growth in regional economies.

Economic stimulation plan to be completed by end of month — Fakhoury

Minister of Planning and International Cooperation Imad Fakhoury on Sunday discussed the Plan to Stimulate Economic Growth 2018-2022 with senior officials, a ministry statement said. The plan aims to maintain the momentum on the economic growth and to benefit from Jordan's "promising" development potentials. It includes four main pillars: economic stability through financial policies, competitiveness and investment through investment policies, ICT and public sector development, infrastructure including water, energy, and transport, and social development, which includes the education, human resources, healthcare and labour. During a meeting with ministries' secretary generals and relevant senior officials, Fakhoury said that the government is finalising its action plan related to all fields targeted by the programme including the financial, investment and monetary policies, the judiciary, ICT, developing the public sector, water, sewage system, energy, mineral resources, transport, external trade, macro, small and medium-sized enterprises, tourism, agriculture, education, human resources development and healthcare.
