‘Economic ecosystem hindering scale up of SMEs in Jordan’

The Jordanian market has the right talent and infrastructure to scale up, but the economic ecosystem is still not sophisticated enough to unleash growth,” according to analysts from Endeavor Jordan and Strategy & Middle East (formerly Booz & Company). The remarks came during a joint meeting held by both organisations in Amman on Sunday, where stakeholders discussed the issues facing scale-up small-and medium-enterprises (SMEs) in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region with a focus on how to build an entrepreneurial ecosystem in Jordan. The session saw the attendance of several representatives of the government, international organisations concerned with supporting SMEs, investors and key players in the entrepreneurial and investment ecosystem in Jordan. “Economic growth in Jordan is a huge challenge and the current legislative framework is hindering the expansion of the present scale-up SMEs in the Kingdom,” Chairman of Endeavor Jordan Walid Tahabsem said during his welcoming speech, expressing hopes to “kick-start a national dialogue on the importance of accelerating the growth of scale-ups, which create quality jobs and generate high wages — and thus contribute to sustainable economic growth”

Hikma enters into licensing partnership with Perrigo in MENA

Hikma Pharmaceuticals PLC (Hikma, Group) announces that it has signed a licensing and distribution agreement with Omega Pharma Trading NV, an affiliate of Perrigo Company plc (Perrigo), one of the largest providers of over-the-counter healthcare solutions in Europe. Under the terms of the agreement, Hikma has the exclusive right to license and distribute more than 30 consumer healthcare products, including Davitamon, Prevalin, XLS Medical, Dermalex and Paranix, in all its MENA markets, with the exception of current agreements in place. Hikma aims to work with Perrigo’s existing partners in the MENA region to broaden sales and marketing coverage. In addition, Hikma has the right of first refusal to the full range of Perrigo’s OTC medicines in the region. The partnership provides a significant opportunity for Hikma to collaborate with Perrigo in MENA, building on the strengths of each company. The agreement will leverage Hikma’s substantial local presence with operations in 17 markets and an established sales and marketing team, experienced in building brands, with particular expertise in the consumer health business.

Minister defends UK’s Brexit plan amid party, business concern

A senior British minister on Sunday defended the government’s plan to adopt EU rules on goods after Brexit, amid anger from MPs who want a cleaner break and concerns it will still harm business. Environment Secretary Michael Gove, a leading Brexit supporter, admitted the proposal thrashed out by Cabinet ministers during a day-long meeting on Friday was not perfect. But he told the BBC: “I’m a realist”, adding: “All of the important areas where an independent country chooses to exercise sovereignty, Britain will be able to do so.” He stressed that Britain was leaving the European Union as planned in March, adding: “You shouldn’t make the perfect the enemy of the good.”
