Gov't economic team convenes on policies, economy stimulation, attracting investments

The Cabinet's economic team on Saturday discussed economic and investment policies and procedures aimed at stimulating the economy, enhancing growth and attracting investment that can contribute to providing jobs and combating poverty. During the meeting, headed by Prime Minister Omar Razzaz, the economic team reviewed a number of procedures that the government has implemented over the past few weeks to stimulate several economic sectors, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Such procedures included the real estate and lands sectors that grew in the first quarter of the year by 12 per cent, in addition to providing exemptions on the fees of transferring ownership, disassociation of heirs and the land subdivision. Members of the economic team also went over the procedures the government has adopted to stimulate the economic activity through paying tax reimbursement to citizens, where so far JD37 million has been disbursed. The team members addressed the conditions of the yoghurt industries sector in the Kingdom and the challenges facing it. The economic team decided to hold a meeting in the few coming days with sector representatives to reach solutions to the obstacles facing their industry and reach ways to enhance its competitiveness in the local and foreign markets.

'Maan's second solar complex is 60% complete'

Maan Development Company (MDC) CEO Hussein Kreishan on Saturday said that the construction of Maan's second solar complex is 60 per cent complete. The project, founded by the MDC, will be fully completed by November, Kreishan said in a statement carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra. The MDC had floated a tender for the establishment of the complex's infrastructure earlier this year, which comprised of the construction of a fence surrounding an area of 800,000 dunums, administrative buildings, entrances for train tracks and a main road that provides access to the surrounding lands. This achievement was made in "record time", Kreishan said, adding that progress is being made according to plan. He pointed that the

Jordan, Egypt, Iraq hold meeting over progress in cooperation deals

A three-way Jordanian-Egyptian-Iraqi meeting held on Thursday discussed preparing work plans and mechanisms for implementing the outcomes of Cairo-hosted tripartite summit between His Majesty King Abdullah, Egyptian President Abdel Fattah Al Sisi and Iraqi Prime Minister Adel Abdul Mahdi. Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Tareq Hammouri, his Egyptian counterpart Amro Nassar and Iraqi Minister of Industry and Minerals Saleh Jubouri attended the Amman meeting, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Talks covered mechanisms of bolstering economic integration between the three countries, including improving industrial cooperation as well as building joint industrial zones and collaboration in the fields of energy, the extension of the Iraqi oil pipeline to Aqaba, linking the two countries' electricity grids, infrastructure, reconstruction and furthering trade exchange.
