Mulki urges Czech company to invest in Jordan

Prime Minister Hani Mulki on Wednesday urged Czech Tatra Truck Company to invest in Jordan and benefit from the free trade agreements, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The remark came during Mulki's visit to the company in Czech Republic. The company, which manufactures heavy and military vehicles, is a partner of the King Abdullah II Design and Development Bureau (KADDB), according to Petra. The premier, who toured the company and was briefed on the stages of the manufacturing process, stressed the importance of enhancing the company's cooperation with KADDB. Mulki highlighted Jordan's economic advantages and its attractive investment environment.

Iraq sets conditions to exempt Jordanian products from fee hikes

Iraq has not yet decide on exempting Jordanian products from customs duties charged by the Iraqi government on all imports, Abd El Ameer Aziz, Iraq's commercial attaché to Jordan said. Jordan has requested Iraq to exempt Jordan from the 30 per cent customs duties imposed on imports from all countries during the meeting of Jordanian-Iraqi joint committee, as the two neighbours are bracing for a new era after the expected reopening of the border crossing following a three-year hiatus caused by the security situation in the Iraqi territories. Iraq has set three conditions in order to exempt Jordan from duties. One of these is that Jordan provides a list of the Jordanian factories' production capacity. "Iraq needs to make sure that the products imported from Jordan are not reexported products and at least 40 per cent of the production process has been in Jordan," Aziz told The Jordan Times. Amman Chamber of Industry Chairman Senator Ziad Homsy considered the questions around the Jordanian product quality and ability to meet the needs of the Iraqi market to be positive and implying that Iraq aims to control the products entering its market and their quality.
