Japanese PM welcomes King, Queen's visit to Tokyo

The Japanese government on Sunday welcomed the visit of His Majesty King Abdullah and Her Majesty Queen Rania to Japan. The Japanese Foreign Ministry issued a statement on the occasion, in which it expressed hope that the visit would boost "friendship relations" between Tokyo and Amman, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The statement said that the Japanese Emperor Akihito and Empress Michiko would meet King Abdullah and Queen Rania over a lunch banquet, before His Majesty holds talks with Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe.

Razzaz discusses government's priorities, income tax bill with ICT sector

Exemptions and any other details should not all be included in the Income Tax Law but spread among stable by-laws that are not affected by governments' change, Prime Minister Omar Razzaz said on Sunday. The premier's remarks came during a meeting with the Information and Communications Technology Association, where he added that the recently announced manifesto of the government's priorities for 2019 and 2020 is "the first phase of a larger national project seeking to meet Jordanians' ambitions for a better future", the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Minister, US diplomat discuss construction sector development

Minister of Public Works and Housing Falah Omoush and US Chargé d'Affaires Jim Barnhart on Sunday discussed bilateral relations and prospects of enhancing them in the construction sector, especially in projects related to education and health. During the meeting, Omoush said that the cooperation between the ministry and USAID covers implementing projects to build schools and hospitals across the Kingdom, expressing his appreciation for the agency's continued support to carry out these schemes, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. For his part, Barnhart voiced his appreciation for the "advanced" level the Jordanian-US ties have reached in various fields, stressing the importance of boosting them in a way that best serves the two countries' people.
