Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Social Security Investment Fund made no recent sales of its shares'

The Social Security Investment Fund (SSIF) stressed that it did not sell any of its shares during the last period, noting that the fluctuations and drop in its share prices at the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) constitute book losses that are not registered in the SSIF's records, in accordance with international financial disclosure standards, as these are long-term investments. SSIF added in a statement released on Sunday and cited by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, that its contributions in ASE-listed companies are strategic long-term investments and are not subject to speculations.

The fund's contributions are distributed over 50 public shareholding companies in "vital sectors, which are characterised by resilience and good annual growth rates", according to the SSIF.

Unemployment up slightly in 3rd quarter of 2018

Unemployment in Jordan reached 18.6 per cent in the third quarter of 2018, up by 0.1 per cent from the same period of last year, the Department of Statistics (DoS) said on Sunday. Unemployment among males increased by 0.9 percentage points in the third quarter to reach 16.3 per cent. However, it dropped among females by 2.8 percentage points compared with the same period of 2017 to reach 27.1 per cent, a report released by the DoS on Sunday showed. The report notes that unemployment is high among holders of bachelor's or higher degrees in comparison with other categories of other educational qualifications.

Sarraj says Libyan debts to Jordanian hospitals to be repaid

His Majesty King Abdullah on Sunday met with Chairman of the Presidential Council of Libya Fayez Sarraj and discussed the Kingdom's support for efforts to realise a political solution in Libya that guarantees its stability and security. Sarraj announced that Libya, through its embassy in Amman, will begin repaying overdue debts of Libyan nationals to Jordan's hospitals, voicing appreciation for His Majesty and the Kingdom's support for Libya, a Royal Court statement said. The King and Sarraj agreed on exerting more efforts to utilise opportunities for enhancing levels of cooperation between the two countries, particularly in the fields of investment, trade exchange, medical tourism, higher education and security.
