Shehadeh meets Qatari officials over investment pledges

Minister of State for Investment Affairs and Chairman of the Jordan Investment Commission (JIC) Muhannad Shehadeh has met with Qatari Prime Minister and Interior Minister Sheikh Abdullah Bin Nasser Bin Khalifa Al Thani in Doha, with whom he discussed means to forge closer cooperation between Jordan and Qatar, mainly in the investment field. A statement by the JIC, carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra on Tuesday, said that Shehadeh met with Al Thani and Finance Minister Ali Sharif Al Emadi to review ways to increase Qatari investments in the Kingdom, as part of the package of investments ordered by the Emir of Qatar Sheikh Tamim Bin Hamad Al Thani two months ago. The pledge included providing 10,000 job opportunities for Jordanians and funding investments worth $500 million in infrastructure projects to assist the Kingdom in facing economic challenges. Shehadeh pointed out that a number of projects have been presented in various sectors, with a focus on energy and tourism, noting that these projects will provide job opportunities for Jordanians, which is the first challenge tackled by the Jordanian government.

PM visits SSC, encourages employees to raise recipients 'satisfaction'

Prime Minister Omar Razzaz paid a surprise visit on Tuesday to the headquarters of the Social Security Corporation (SSC) in Wadi Saqra area to supervise the progress of work and the level of services provided to citizens. The prime minister said that each employee should work to raise the level of satisfaction for service recipients and provide services in a short period of time, stressing that the satisfaction of citizens is a top priority for the government. Razzaz also pointed out during his field tour, the need to provide available electronic services and keep pace with developments to improve these services, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Royal Jordanian announces partnership with car rental company

Royal Jordanian (RJ) Airlines on Tuesday announced a new partnership agreement with Car Trawler, the leading Irish car rental company which globally provides land and railway transport services. The aim of this agreement is to enhance passengers' services by creating a full range of transportation options, where RJ passengers as of August 7, will be able to choose the cars they want and directly rent them via RJ's website www.rj.com or RJ'S application on smart phones, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.
