Jordan, Canada 'keen to expand partnership in various fields'

His Majesty King Abdullah and Canada's Minister of Foreign Affairs Chrystia Freeland on Tuesday reviewed bilateral ties and the latest developments in the Middle East. They highlighted the importance of enhancing cooperation in various fields, with His Majesty voicing his appreciation for the support Canada offers to help the Kingdom implement several development projects, according to a Royal Court statement. Talks also went over the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. King Abdullah stressed the need to intensify efforts aimed at reaching a just, sustainable peace based on the two-state solution, which leads to the establishment of an independent Palestinian state, with East Jerusalem as its capital.

UK to host Jordan support meeting in February

The United Kingdom will host the London conference to support the economy and investment in Jordan on February 28, with the participation of the Group of Seven representatives, as well as leading international institutions in the field of finance and investment. The aim of the London conference is to rally international community support to help put Jordan on a sustainable growth path and transition to an export-led economy, in addition to attracting international businesses and investors to explore the commercial opportunities in Jordan, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Potash company reports JD89m in net profits in nine months

The Arab Potash Company (APC) has announced that its net profit after taxes, provisions and royalties amounted to JD89 million during the first nine months of 2018, recording an increase of 44 per cent over the same period of last year. In a statement, APC's Chairman Jamal Sarayrah said that the profits achieved during the said period coincided with the huge budget allocated for the maintenance of the company's plants and its infrastructure, necessary for ensuring the continuity of its businesses and operations. The chairman also explained that potash industry is considered among the capital intensive industries constantly requiring large
