Jordan, ICRC sign $25m deal to rehabilitate water infrastructure in host communities

The Water Ministry and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) on Tuesday signed an agreement and a memorandum of understanding to rehabilitate the infrastructure in refugee-hosting communities. The $25-million memo was signed by Water Minister Raed Abul Saud and head of the ICRC delegation in Jordan, Jurg Montani, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The ministry's plans aim to counter the exceptional conditions that the Kingdom is experiencing as a result of hosting hundreds of thousands of Syrian refugees, in cooperation with the international organisations and donors, along with the ICRC, Abul Saud said. He added that the ministry's plans aim at developing the quality and supply of drinking water and preserving available resources while rebuilding the main water distribution grid, Petra added.

Jordan, Iraq officials follow up on mutual agreements, pledges

Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Tareq Hammouri and Iraqi officials on Tuesday discussed the latest updates in the implementation of measures the two sides agreed on last month to enhance Jordanian-Iraqi economic ties. According to a ministry statement, carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, Hammouri and Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance Fuad Hussein, as well as accompanying ministers, discussed pledges to implement all the economic agreements. They also discussed the measures necessary to set up an industrial estate on their common border as a qualitative leap in economic cooperation. The Iraqi ministers stressed their keenness to enhance economic cooperation with the Kingdom in various fields, and to speed up procedures to implement the recently-signed agreements, especially those pertaining to trade, investment, energy and transport, among others.

Safadi, Indonesian counterpart discuss bilateral relations, regional developments

Foreign Minister Ayman Safadi and his Indonesian counterpart, Retno Marsudi, on Tuesday discussed ways to enhance bilateral relations and the latest regional developments. The two ministers noted that there are "genuine" opportunities to increase Jordanian-Indonesian cooperation in the economic, investment, tourism and defence fields, according to a Foreign Ministry statement. During a joint press statement following the meeting, Safadi said that the 2 per cent growth achieved last year in trade exchange between the two countries, and the increase in the number of Indonesian tourists to the Kingdom to 40,000, are two major indicators of development in Amman-Jakarta relations.
