King tasks Razzaz with forming new government

His Majesty King Abdullah on Tuesday entrusted Omar Razzaz with forming a new government, succeeding that of Hani Mulki, who resigned on Monday. In the letter of designation, King Abdullah directed Razzaz and his yet-to-be-formed team to launch a comprehensive national reform scheme that seeks to “empower the Jordanian people” and enable them to realise their potential and meet their needs and demands. King Abdullah said the key challenge facing Jordan is the slow economic growth. The government’s priority, His Majesty said, is to stimulate economic growth, enhance the country’s competitiveness and create jobs for the youth.

Kuwait willing to extend further support to Jordan

Kuwait on Monday voiced willingness to support Jordan economically through increased investments and concessional loans. The message was delivered to His Majesty King Abdullah on Monday by visiting Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of State for Cabinet Affairs Anas Al Saleh . The Kuwaiti official conveyed to His Majesty the greetings of Emir of Kuwait Sheikh Sabah Al Ahmad Al Sabah, who also affirmed Kuwait’s support for Jordan under various circumstances and its constant readiness to support the Kingdom in all fields, according to a Royal Court statement. Al Saleh said that Kuwait is currently considering more Kuwaiti investments in the Kingdom and extending concessional loans to support growth-stimulating projects. His Majesty expressed Jordan’s appreciation for Kuwait’s historically supportive stands led by Sheikh Sabah, stressing the strength of brotherly relations between the two countries and the keenness to elevate them to the highest levels in the service of their common interests.

ACI interested in benefiting from Chinese expertise on industrial development

The Amman Chamber of Industry (ACI) on Monday expressed its interest in benefiting from Chinese expertise in the industrial development field to increase the competitiveness of the Jordanian industries. During a meeting with Chinese Ambassador to Jordan Pan Weifang, ACI Deputy President Adnan Ghaith said that a lot of Jordanian industrialists have imported their equipment in the past decade from China, especially because they are competitive in terms of quality and prices, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.
