Jordan, Switzerland sign agreement for water sanitation solutions

Minister of Planning and International Cooperation Imad Fakhoury and Water Minister Hazem El Nasser on Sunday signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with the Swiss government, initiating a 10-year cooperation in water sanitation and hygiene (WASH) and transboundary water management. The agreement is the first MoU in Jordan in the fields of WASH, water governance and transboundary water management, granting JD11.5 million for water sanitation solutions for the most unprivileged communities across the Kingdom. The MoU comes in the framework of the agreement signed in 2013 on Humanitarian Assistance, Technical and Financial Cooperation, aiming to increase the bilateral cooperation in humanitarian aid and development between Switzerland and Jordan.

Jordan, Palestine sign memo to reinforce economic ties

The Palestinian-Jordanian Business Forum has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the chambers union of commerce, industry and agriculture to reinforce economic cooperation and promote investment opportunities between the two countries, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported on Monday. The memo was signed by the Jordanian-Palestinian Business Forum Chairman Talal Al Bau and President of the Palestinian Union of Commercial, Industrial and Agricultural Chambers Khalil Rizeq, on the sidelines of the third Silk Road Conference attended by the Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Yarub Qudah. Both parties agreed to give investment in Jerusalem bigger attention to give Palestinians economic means to face plans of settlers. The MoU covered means to enhance cooperation between the Palestinian and Jordanian private sectors and exchange information on the economic sectors in both countries. It also included cooperation in the organisation of conferences, seminars, trade and industrial exhibitions, and plans for the formation of a technical follow-up committee to monitor and evaluate joint projects and activities.

Cabinet simplifies procedures for investments

The Cabinet on Sunday cancelled a list of 126 approvals required to register investment facilities, excluding security approvals, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The decision comes in line with the government's plan to structure and simplify procedures for citizens and investors. The measure transformed the approvals into guidelines to be reviewed by investors prior to registration. The Council of Ministers tasked the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Supply and Companies Control Department to register the purpose of the investment directly without referring it to other governmental agencies.
