30.6-million-euro grant from the EU to build 10 new schools in Jordan

The Ministry of Planning and International Cooperation and the German Development Bank (KfW) on Wednesday signed a grant agreement worth 30.6 million euros to complete the programme of school construction in Jordan. The grant agreement, signed by Minister Mary Kawar and Director of the Amman Office of KfW Christian Schaub, aims at building, equipping and furnishing 10 new government schools. Kawar was quoted, in a Planning Ministry statement to The Jordan Times, as saying that the programme is supported by the EU Regional Trust Fund in Response to the Syrian Crisis, the “Madad Fund”, in order to contribute to easing the pressure on public schools receiving large numbers of students beyond the capacity as a result of the enrolment of thousands of Syrian students in government schools. Madad was launched in 2014 as a more flexible and rapid tool to respond to changing

Senate president, Emirati ambassador discuss UAE investment in Jordan

The UAE has always been a supporter to Jordan, Senate President Faisal Fayez said on Wednesday, calling for more Emirati investments in Jordan. During a meeting with Emirati Ambassador to Jordan Matar Al Shamsi, Fayez added that Jordan enjoys a good investment environment in all fields, coupled with a qualified workforce, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. He also praised the “deep-rooted, strategic” relations between the two countries, as Shamsi said the trade exchange volume between Abu Dhabi and Jordan reached $1.345 billion in 2017. Emirati investments in Jordan exceeded $17 billion last year, Shamsi underlined, as Jordanians commercial and investment activities ranked first in the UAE.

Jordan's real estate trading drops by 14% in 2018

Trading volume in the Kingdom’s real estate market fell to JD4.815 billion by the end of November 2018, a 14-per cent drop from the same period in 2017, when the total deals’ value reached JD5.629 billion. The monthly report on the real estate in the Kingdom, issued by the Department of Land and Survey (DLS) on Tuesday, showed that northern Amman Registration Office ranked first in the sector, with a trade volume of JD1.002 billion, followed by Central Amman Registration Office with JD597 million, while Southern Amman Office saw JD513 million worth of transactions. The trading volume at Amman offices and the DLS headquarters amounted for 69 per cent of the national figure, totalling JD3.320 billion. Meanwhile, the rest of the Kingdom’s registration offices accounted for 31 per cent of real estate trade, totalling JD1495 million.
