Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Industry minister to announce bread price today

Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Yarub Qudah is scheduled to hold a press conference on Monday at 4pm to announce the price of bread, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported on Sunday. The 2018 draft state budget includes, for the first time, a social safety network/cash subsidy with a value of JD177 million to make up for the rising cost of living brought about by the lifting of subsidies, including bread.

Real estate trade records significant drop in 2017

Trade volume in the Kingdom's real estate market in 2017 reached JD6.062 billion, dropping by 14 per cent when compared to 2016's total of JD7.057 billion, the Department of Land and Survey (DLS) announced on Sunday. Northern Amman registration office ranked first with trade volume of JD1.262 billion, followed by central Amman registration office with JD792 million, while eastern Amman and southern Amman offices saw a trade volume of JD701 million and JD644 million, respectively, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported, citing a DLS statement. Trade volume at Amman offices and the DLS headquarters amounted for 71 per cent of the Kingdom's trade, totalling JD4.289 billion.

Senate endorses fuel derivatives law

The Senate on Sunday endorsed the 2016 fuel derivatives law as referred from the Lower House with some amendments, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The fuel derivatives law regulates economic and investment activities related to the fuel derivatives sector, which includes crude oil and refinement, natural gas, liquefied natural gas, bio-fuels, oil shale and coal. The Lower House in late December passed the 2016 draft fuel derivatives law, rejecting a provision by the government to put extra fees on petroleum products as amended by the Lower House Energy and Mineral Resources Committee and approved by a majority of lawmakers, the government cannot put any extra fees on every fuel derivatives unit sold to consumers as stipulated in its version of the 2016 Fuel Derivatives Law.
