Prices of gasoline, kerosene, diesel increase

The government on Saturday decided to raise the prices of gasoline, kerosene and diesel between 1.5 to 5 per cent, while maintaining the price of gas cylinders unchanged for October. The government's decision, which went into effect on October 1 was taken in accordance with recommendations by the Fuel Pricing Committee, which convened on Saturday, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Under the decision, kerosene and diesel will be sold at JD0.520 per litre, up from JD0.495, marking a 5 per cent increase. The cost of one litre of unleaded 90-octane gasoline will go up by 1.5 per cent, to be sold at JD0.6vvv90, up from JD0.680. Additionally a litre of unleaded 95-octane gasoline will sell for JD0.910, up from JD0.895, recording an increase of 1.7 per cent.

Industry minister, Rawanda investment official discuss cooperation

Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Yarub Qudah and CEO of the Investment Development Corporation in Rwanda Clare Akamanzi on Saturday discussed ways to strengthen joint economic cooperation between the two countries, according to the Jordan News Agency, Petra. Qudah pointed out arrangements for a Jordanian business delegation to visit Rwanda next year, also emphasising the possibilities of cooperation between the two countries in the agricultural sector. Akamanzi expressed Rwanda's interest to invest in several sectors in Jordan. She said that Rwanda will take over the presidency of the African Union next year, which will be an opportunity to reinforce economic relations between Jordan and African countries. Akamazni said that Rwanda is currently working on the construction of a land port project, which will be a gateway for Jordanian products to enter African markets.

Jordan ranks 65th in global competitiveness report, 7th in region

Maintaining its overall score, Jordan slipped two ranks globally, falling to the 65th place out of 137 in the Global Competitiveness Report 2017-2018, published Tuesday by the World Economic Forum (WEF). The Kingdom seized the 7th place in the region, preceded by the UAE, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Kuwait and Oman. "The country continues to benefit from a fairly stable and efficient institutional system and relatively good infrastructure, innovation and business sophistication," the report stated. Attributing this stability to the recent governmental measures to consolidate the country's fiscal situation and business environment, the report highlighted the numerous challenges posed by the large refugee influx over the recent years.
