Memo signed to create, develop industrial zones

The Jordan Industrial Estates Company (JIEC) and the Palestinian Industrial Estates and Free Zones Authority (PIEFZA) on Saturday signed a memorandum to enhance to cooperation and coordination, a JIEC statement said. The MoC was signed by JIEC CEO Omar Jwaid and PIEFZA CEO Ali Shaath. The memorandum will witness the creation and development of industrial estates that boast international standards with the aim of establishing an environment that would attract domestic and foreign investments and curb unemployment in both countries.

Royal Jordanian, Royal Air Maroc sign codeshare deal

Royal Jordanian (RJ) and Royal Air Maroc have announced the signing of a free sale codeshare deal. Under the agreement, RJ will be able to market Royal Air Maroc flights, putting RJ's carrier code on these flights between Casablanca's Mohammed V International Airport and Amman's Queen Alia International Airport (QAIA). RJ does not operate flights to Morocco. The codeshare three weekly flights will be sold as of August 5, which will be also the first date of travel. The agreement with Royal Air Maroc is bound to enhance cooperation between the two flag carriers and improve passenger traffic by providing RJ customers convenient options to fly to/from Amman; they can also plan their trips to reach further destinations on RJ's global route network.
